

“Thibaut is dedicated and professional. He has the ability to work hard and get personally behind what he does. It has been a good experience having Thibaut on board of our project where he helped grow the business in New York. I can recommend him to his future employers.”

February 26, 2012

Jean François Daniel, Co-founder, FAIR. Spirits
jfdaniel@fairspirits.com

“Thibaut Marquis did his internship with *mdp marketing from May to September 2010. *mdp marketing is a marketing consultancy specializing in marketing, design and publicity. During his time with the business, Thibaut was responsible for supplier management, interaction with clients, assisting me with event organizing and overall strategic marketing responsibilities. Thibaut has excellent organizational skills as was evident with the added responsibilities some clients awarded to him. Furthermore he played a huge role in managing *mdp marketing’s interactions with clients and suppliers. Mr Marquis’s greatest strengths are his wisdom, diplomacy and work ethic. No task is too big or small for him to pursue with attention to detail and excellence. I would recommend Thibaut for any internship position he is applying for and wish him well for his (imminent successful) career!”

January 16, 2011

Mariska Du Preez, Owner, *mdp marketing
mariska@mdpmarketing.co.za

“Thibaut has an amazing ability to generate energy within a group of his peers and is able to significantly engage with individuals. His work is of a high standard and he is absolutely always willing to go the extra mile. Thibaut would make a serious contribution to any role and any company he worked for.”

September 20, 2010

Heinz Essmann, Programme Manager, Indutech worked with Thibaut at INDUTECH (Pty) LTD
heinzessmann@gmail.com

“Thibaut has shown himself to be very able and he had an opportunity to demonstrate his professional skill in the international trade and business development area.”

November 18, 2009

Diego Maturi, International Trade and Business Development Analyst, Bairexport - La Red de Exportadores de Buenos Aires diego_maturi@hotmail.com

“Thibaut is the most 'international french' person I have ever met. Thibaut is social and comfortable in dealing with other people and cultures. In addition, he speaks several languages. Thibaut is also very eager to learn and also transfers his knowledge to others; he is a team player that is able to get the best out of others. I would certainly recommend Thibaut for any company!”

March 4, 2011

Alexander Pols, Consultant at Lean Management Instituut
alexanderpols@solcon.nl

“I have had Thibaut in my international business classes at both the University of Tennessee and the University of Angers where I recently taught an MBA level class in his master's program. Thibaut is truly an exceptional young man and student. He is the current president of his class, is deeply involved in many activities at his school, has outstanding academics, is exceptionally well-traveled for someone his age and has an open mind to cultures, careers and people. I highly recommend him for anything that suits his interests and goals. If I can offer further assistance or information on Thibaut, please contact me. John Anderson”

January 18, 2011

John Anderson, Principal at Anderson International consulting & Lecturer in International Business, Univ of Tennessee

jander37996@yahoo.com

“Thibaut is a person who is able to motivate and to manage a team. He is a true leader in conducting big actions for the university. He is also very effective in his work and do not waste any time. I will recommend Thibaut to anyone who wants to hire somebody really dynamic and profesional. I'm sure he will be effective in any part of the world thanks to its numerous experiences abroad and to is multiculturalism.”

January 17, 2011

Marine Guiard, Project Manager at Laval Mayenne Technopole

marine.guiard@hotmail.fr

“Thibaut is the incontestable president of the student organization of our Master's degree. Thibaut has demonstrated abilities to manage team and projects. Thibaut has also premium skills to communicate and to gather together people for the success of the entire organization. His commitment within the student organization is definitely one of the most important. This compilation of skills and motivation has led to the success of the student organization. Thibaut is really proactive, indeed he has undertaken several projects, such as launching the first week end of integration, launching the new alumni association, making more formal the graduation ceremony and many other projects. Thibaut has always showed calm and pragmatic capabilities to solve the issues met within the association and even to solve the issues that going far beyond of his duties. I would have no hesitation in recommending him. Thibaut will be the future proactive manager that will succeed within an international environment.”

March 10, 2011

Guillaume Roussel, Student, University of Angers

guillaume.rousselh@gmail.com

“Thibaut is a man of many talents. He can cope with everything thrown at him and is the consummate professional. His many skills across a wide variety of areas make him a fantastic potential employee for any company. He's extremely reliable and dependable, and could contribute significantly to any organization he joins. He always strives for excellence and invariably achieves it. As a professional, Thibaut is extraordinary, but as a friend he is even better if that is possible. Thibaut is always there for you when you need him, and is great fun to be around. I have absolutely no doubt Thibaut is destined for a great career and will go on to accomplish many great things in the future. I am more than happy to vouch for his capabilities.”

July 2, 2011,

Adrien Bruneau, Web designer / Web developer

adrien.bruneau@gmail.com